Please Note

- ◆ Since this is the last session of the day, please complete your evaluation form and put on the table at the back of the room. This will help us in planning the next seminar.
- ◆ Please save questions for end of presentation

Introduction

- ◆ Through out the 17th and 18th Century the Colonial and Federal Governments maintain a small army and navy except when they at war.
- ◆ Both relied on the Colonial and State Militias to provide manpower for the army and to a lesser extent, the navy.
- ◆ This will change in the 20th Century.
 - The Draft
 - Federalizing the state militias to the National Guard

Introduction

- ◆ When doing research in your military ancestors you must remember that you must look at both Federal and State Records in doing your research.
- ◆ It is important when looking for army records, to know what state an ancestor served from and if possible what unit he served in.

Introduction

- ◆ Naval records are usually arranged by vessel or by naval base/station.
 - So it is important to know what vessel your ancestors served on or what naval base or station they was at.
- ◆ The Marines Corp is an arm of the navy.
- ◆ The Air Force did not exist before 1947.
 - Army Air Corp

Introduction

- ◆ Confederate military records are usually with the state they served from
- ◆ The Federal government only has a limited amount of records for Confederate servicemen.
- ◆ They can show up in the Pension Files or the 1890 Census for Veterans

Introduction

- ◆ This is not a comprehensive list
- ◆ Examples are to be found at national, state, and local level
- ◆ Only a small number of military records has been digitized
- ◆ Most online resources are indexes to the records or finding aids

Hamilton, Alexander
Elizabeth

CONTENTS

D. 7. 1. 1.

In the Name of God Amen
Alexander Hamilton of the City of New York Counsellor at Law Do make this my last Will and Testament as follows: First, I appoint John B. Blunck Nicholas M. and Nathaniel Stetson of the City aforesaid Esquires to be Executors and Trustees of this my Will, and I advise to them their heirs and assigns as Joint Tenants and not as Tenants in common, all my Estate real and personal whatsoever and wheresoever up on Trust at their discretion to sell and dispose of the same at such time and times in such manner and upon such terms as the survivors and survivor shall think fit and out of the proceeds to pay all the debts which I shall owe at the time of my decease in whole if the fund shall be sufficient pro por-tionally, if it shall be insufficient and the residue if any there shall be, to pay and deliver to my Excellent and dear Wife Elizabeth Hamilton. Though if it shall please God to spare my life I may look for a considerable surplus out of my present property yet if he should suddenly call me to the eternal world, a forced sale as is usual may possibly render it insufficient to satisfy my debts. I pray God that something may remain for the maintenance and Education of my dear Wife
